RECTE suadet diuinus ille Plato, bis terve, quæ pulcra & honesta essent, iteranda; cum vt altius memoriæ infigantur, tum vt quidque numeris fiat omnibus absolutum. Nullam enim rerum honestarum satietatem esse idem Philosophus vsurpabat. Natura adhæc ita esse comparatum, nihil vt simul inuentum, absolutumque in apertam prodeat lucem; sed vt repetitis idētidem ictibus quercum decuti, sic & augeri indies humana corpora, vegetarique, & ad maturitatem aiebat perduci. Edideram nuper in hoc Antiquitatis studio Nomismata Imperatorum Romanorum, sed aurea dumtaxat, cum auersis partibus à C. Iulio Cæsare vsque ad Heraclium Aug. idque auspiciis Herois Alexandri Croy, Principis Chimaicensis. Hanc industriam sculpendi nostram, post Aeneam Vicum, & Hub. Goltzium hac in Nomismata cælandi arte Principes, cūm plerisque eruditis hominibus Antiquitatis & Historiæ Rom. amantibus placuisse animaduertissem, feci sanè libenter, vt argentea etiam, æreaque Nomismata, te hortante, atque adiutante maxime denuo adiungerem. Sic vero digessimus grandius hoc Opus, vt paginæ cuiusque initio Imperatoris imago ad viuum expressa statim appareret: sequerenturque porro partes cuiusque Augusti auersæ Deorum, Dearumque signis, ac virtutum, Prouinciarum, Urbium, Fluminum, atque Aedificiorum imagine notatæ: quarum rerum & Indicem per classes ita digessimus, vt qui plures eiusdem generis, aut diuersos Nummos requireret, in promptu haberet. Cumque veterum Nomismata varij Metallorum generis reperiantur, aurea, argentea, & ærea; eademque imagines in his cusæ appareant, idcirco signo, vt Hub. Goltzius, non distinximus; nec singula seiunximus, vt Aeneas Vicus, sed quæ eiusdem essent Cæsaris, cuiuscumque metalli coniunximus, vt ærea tamen nota S. C. ostenderemus. Historiam vero cuiusque Tabulæ explanationemq; paulo fusiozem peti posse censeo è DIALOGIS doctis sane ac laboriosis, ANTONII AVGVSTINI, Præsulis clarissimi, summi profecto omnis Antiquitatis peritiâ Viri: quos nunc DIALOGOS XI. vno etiam adiecto, Antuerpiæ edidit Latinos à se factos P. Andreas Schottus, Societ. IESV Sacerdos. E quibus quidem DIALOGIS

Et si facile omnia hauriat quæ quisque requirat: & haud scio, an quid desiderari possit amplius eorum, qui Italicos, Gallicosve de Nomismatis Antiquorum Commentarios reliquerunt. Nam de Marci Laurini viri nobilis, & docti sumptibus, Historiis editis à Ioâne Stadio eruditiss. viro ad Icones Huberti Goltzij, vt in Cæsarem Iulium, & in Augustum, atque in Siciliam, Magnamque Græciam quid dicam? Nimirum quod de Homero, & Marone summis Poetis Critici solent; illi quidem nihil addi posse, huic vero nihil detrahi. Quo magis gratulandum esse sæculi huius felicitati arbitror, repertis tandem, & è latebris demum prolatis Tabulis Insularum Prouinciarumque vniuersæ Græciæ. Spes itaque affulget fore, vt breui, si quæ secunda aura veluti Zephyrus adspirarit, in lucem bono publico proferantur. Habe itaque, Vir Illustris, bonamque in partem accipe I C O N A S Imperatorum à Iulio vsq; ad Valentinianum Imp. à me, quo-ad licuit, ex fide ari incisas: quando ex omni nostræ Nobilitatis flore, quem tecum comparem, nedum anteponam, vt amantissimum, sic & scientissimum antiquæ omnis doctrinæ habeam neminem. Perge modo nostris fauere conatibus, & ope, qua licet, iuua labores nostros, & Goltzianas Tabulas propediem exituras, ne (quod omen Deus auertat) perpetua tectæ caligine damno publico tandem intercidant. Vale Antuerpiæ.
