Mr. Joseph ...

Debo acordar las manos muchas veces por la onerosidad que me cabe en su casa y por las bue-nas experiencias que me da del negocio que tiene entre manos que cuanto mas es tanto mas se di-funde y es fuerz que tenga pero que en Dios que puedan por los contrarios i prevenga la verdad que pretendamos por tantos fundamentos. Lo cierto es que ninguna cosa es tan clara que si se quiere impunirse i oscurecer no se pueda ni ninguna tan desatinada que no se pueda defender. Mas la verdad es que los hombres puede en cosas tales descubrir la verdad i favorecerla. Lo primero que quisiere ver es es una de las que me escribe vna de las que como es la historia no se satisface sino de algunas expuestas i que se esclaren los inductivos i de la ma buelta los citados i no bellados. Luego de los autores que se usan de uno que no se estiman si no algunas expuestas pueden ver si se estiman no se venia. Una antiguedad y fuerza que se por los claramente expuestas i por una de las sin muchos ni es posible que lean las de pocas cosas por bene que de la parte contraria se vea ninguno por que de la fuerza que no se admiten por mucha parte Handwritten text in red ink, possibly a date or reference number, located at the top of the page. The text is faint and difficult to decipher but appears to include the year '1902'.

Faint, illegible handwritten text in blue or grey ink, located in the middle section of the page. The text is mostly obscured by a horizontal crease or tear in the paper.

A circular purple stamp or seal, partially visible on the left side of the page. The text within the stamp is mostly illegible but appears to contain the word 'LIBRARY'.
