RESEARCHERID

¿QUÉ ES?

- Lugar estable donde el investigador añade sus datos personales y su investigación (Thomson Reuters), integrado en la WOS (<http://www.researcherid.com>)
- Ofrece una solución a la ambigüedad de los autores
- Se asigna a cada miembro un identificador único, lo que le permite:
  - Gestionar su lista de publicaciones
  - Seguir sus citas e índice h (desde la WOS)
  - Identificar colaboradores potenciales
  - Evitar una mala identificación del investigador
- Se integra la información en la Web of Science
- Se puede conectar con ORCID

¿CÓMO CREARSE UN PERFIL?

Se entra en la web directamente o desde la WOS

- Nombre y apellidos
- Correo electrónico
- Datos de la afiliación
- Aceptar las condiciones
- Pregunta si queremos conectar con ORCID

A screenshot of the ResearcherID registration form. The form is titled 'RESEARCHERID' and 'THOMSON REUTERS'. It says 'Thank you for your interest in ResearcherID!'. Below this, it says 'To register with ResearcherID.com, complete the * required fields below. We will e-mail you registration invitation link.' The form has four input fields: 'First Name', 'Last Name', 'E-mail', and 'How did you hear about us?'. Each field has a red asterisk indicating it is required. There is a note: 'Note: ResearcherID.com will contact you using the email address. This will be kept private by default.' At the bottom, there are 'Submit' and 'Clear' buttons.

ORCID

Did you know you can associate your ORCID ID with your ResearcherID account?

- I would like to create an ORCID record.
- I already have an ORCID record.
- No, thank you.

The Open Researcher and Contributor ID (ORCID, Inc.) is a non-profit organization that aims to solve the author/contributor name ambiguity problem in scholarly communication by creating a central registry of unique identifiers. These identifiers can be used within various systems you may interact with in your professional research workflow, including manuscript submission, etc.

By creating an ORCID you will be able to link your ResearcherID account with this centralized registry.
